DEDICATION

MR. GEORGE CLENDENEN

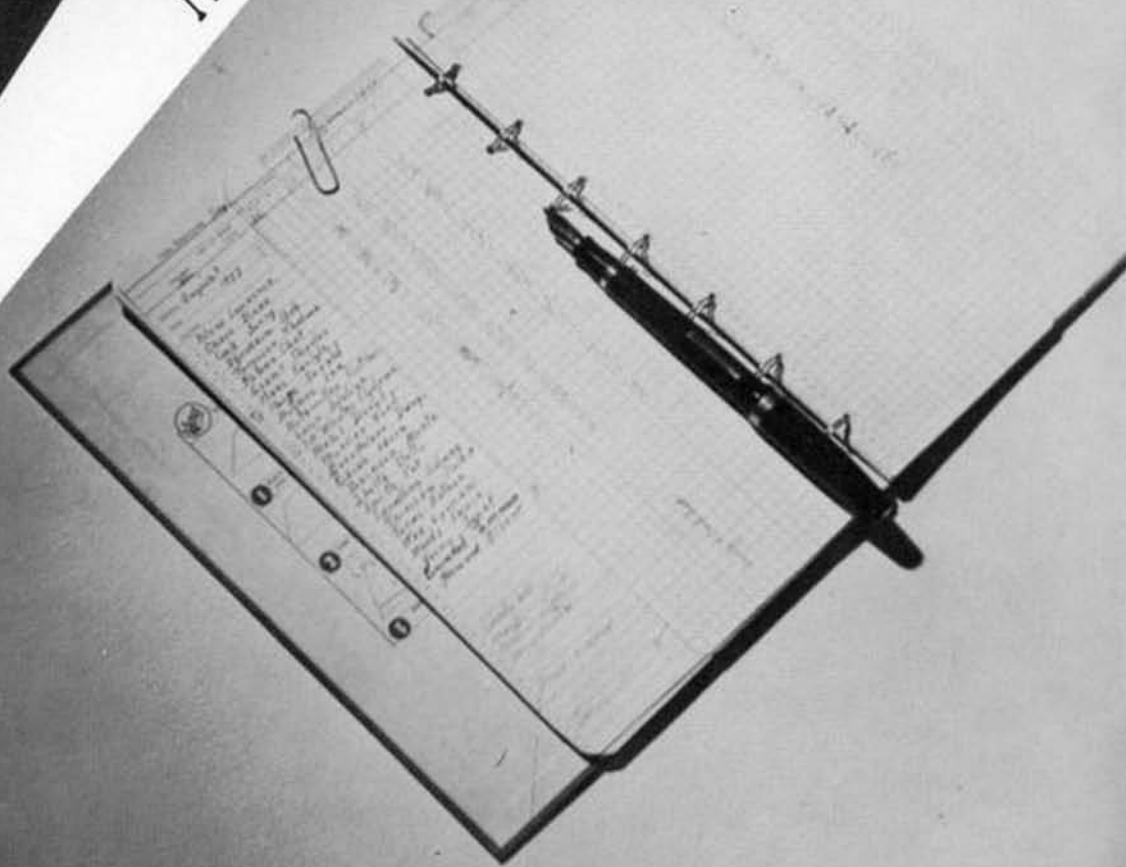

The Senior Class of Hillsboro High School proudly dedicate the 1956 Red Devil Yearbook to Mr. Clendenen who has served as school custodian for 32 years. We extend our deepest appreciation for his many services to students, to teachers, and to the community.

SENIOR POEM

This is to all from the senior group
We hope we didn't seem too naughty a troop.
Shirley Cook has such pretty red hair
And a personality that is more than fair.
Curtis Landis is a friend of everyone,
If you join him, you will have your fun.
There is a gal that never lets you down,
You'll find her to be Evelyn Brown.
Charles Weatherholt is the lad with a crew-cut,
The girls that go out with him can really strut.
Carolyn Hodges likes to sing,
But she would rather have a diamond ring.
Alvadore Morgan has a smile that will stay,
He is always at work, never at play.
A little short girl is Clara Starks,
She is very witty with her bright remarks.
Tom Birchfield is always so quiet and still,
But he can do things if he only will.
Elenora McKeever, a doctor she wants to be,
But I surely don't want her doctoring me.
Hobert Kershner with his eyes of brown
He's a boy that gets around.
Dorothy Dever is a girl that's clever,
We'll all miss her and forget her never.
Vernie Bolden, a minister he wants to be,
He will make his parents proud, you'll see.
Tony Gum is a handsome guy,
On him many gals have set their eye.
A good meal Yvonne Hill can prepare,
Cooks like her are very rare.
Lewis Cooper is the class brain,
He works very hard, but not in vain.
Rex is known for his wit and fun,
If you need laughs, he's the one.
Marie has brown hair and baby blue eyes,
When it comes to shyness she takes the prize.
Anna Mae Pringle likes to draw things large and small,
At art she is good, but at talking-----she beats all.
Jimmy Workman, with hair of brown
Wears a smile, never a frown.
An all around girl is Anne Farmer,
Believe me, she is a real charmer.
Elbert is quite small,
But he is well heard by all.
Walter Kellison is quite a guy,
But around the girls he's always shy.
Mrs. Callison is a sponsor tried and true,
A better one we never knew.
Mrs. Payne has helped us through the year,
In our heart we hold her dear.
These few lines are to bid farewell
And to tell you, students, you've all been swell.

CLASS HISTORY

We entered Hillsboro High School in the fall of 1952 feeling pretty small and helpless. We had enrollment of 27 members. We elected the following officers that year: President, Charles Weatherholt; Vice-President, Holly McClain; Secretary, Jimmy Workman; Treasurer, Lewis Cooper.

We chose for our class colors gold and blue.

During the year we lost Val Rudd, Truman Roberts, Mary Margaret Markle, Jerry Johnson, John Johnson, Junior McClure, Fredrick Seabolt, Dacil Workman, Ruth Workman who moved to other schools.

We came back in the fall of 1953 feeling just a little surer of ourselves since we were now sophomores. This year we had an enrollment of 23 students. The officers we elected were: President, Bernard Hamrick; Vice-President, Carolyn Hodges; Secretary and Treasurer, Eleanore McKeever. We welcomed into our class Holly McClain, but we lost Ada Pritt and Eugene Brown.

We initiated the freshmen with a party. At least we hope they considered it a party, because we made them eat some "goop" that we certainly wouldn't have wanted someone to push down us.

We had with us as sponsor these first two years, Mrs. Preston McLaughlin who did a very good job of helping and advising us.

In the fall of 1954 we came into the school as "Jolly Juniors." We elected to have lead us that year in office: Tony Gum, President; Jimmy Workman, Vice-President; Ann Farmer, Secretary; Anna Mae Pringle, Treasurer.

We were happy to have in our class Eva Church, George Church, and Vernie Bolden.

The class rings that we had waited for so long finally came December 23.

On December 17 we presented a comedy "Finders Creepers" with the following in the cast: Tony Gum, Charles Weatherholt, Ann Farmer, Carolyn Hodges, Shirley Cook, Dorothy Dever, Anna Mae Pringle, Walter Kellison, Curtis Landis, Jimmy Workman, Eleanore McKeever, Evelyn Brown, Tom Birchfield.

Carolyn Hodges represented the class at the annual homecoming football game as homecoming queen attendant. Carolyn also represented the junior class as majorette.

The honors we won this year were: Ann Farmer and Lewis Cooper, National Honor Society; Carolyn Hodges, F. F. A. Sweetheart; Ann Farmer, "Know Your State Government Day;" Carolyn Hodges, Federation Sweetheart; Ann Farmer, Girls' State; and Charles Weatherholt, Boys' State.

On August 30, 1955, we came back to school as "Dignified?" seniors with an enrollment of 23 members.

Our officers this year were: President, Tony Gum; Vice-President, Charles Weatherholt; Secretary, Ann Farmer; Treasurer, Anna Mae Pringle.

We welcomed Mrs. Virginia Callison as our sponsor during our junior and senior years.

We lost Barton Hollandsworth who joined the Air Force, and Nancy Fine, who, after being with us for a while, moved.

We were honored this year in the fact that we had six members in the Chapter of Future Homemakers of America, of which three were officers. The F. H. A. Secretary, Carolyn Hodges; Parliamentarian, Dorothy Dever; and Game Leader, Anna Mae Pringle.

As we close our records of the past four years, we are looking forward to and planning many events and celebrations that we shall hold in our memories for years and years to come.

PROPHECY

It had been a beautiful spring in California; the weather, the scenery and nature itself seemed to invite us to take a trip.

'Twas Friday morning April 29, 1966, when we really decided to begin our trip to the East coast! We left California in the swankiest plane built--it had all the modern conveniences. We could well afford it, since Anna Mae was married to the president of the company, and of course, the fact that my husband built it helped me obtain passage.

Soon we were on our way. Our first stop was in Leavenworth, Kansas, to pick up an important man. You can imagine our amazement when we learned it was Lewis Cooper, the famous chemist.

It was so lovely in Kansas with the spring flowers bursting into bloom, birds nesting; the trees seemed to whisper that nature was now in bloom with all its grandeurs. We decided to continue our trip by car in order to enjoy the springtime beauty. We bought a Cadillac and toured Kansas. Driving to a nearby ranch we asked if they could put us up for the night, and behold! it was Marie Shields who answered the doorbell and took us in. We yielded to her invitation to spend a week there after which we journeyed toward the East.

We stopped in St. Louis, Missouri, and registered at the President Hotel. After a delightful dinner had been served, "Mademoiselle Maxine," better known to us as Carolyn Hodges, presented the latest in popular hits in the ballroom.

After more delightful travel we crossed the West Virginia border. The first thing we noticed was that all the license plates were RED and GRAY. Right away we guessed that Jimmy Workman was governor. We stopped in Charleston and visited him.

We spent the night in the Diamond Hotel but something dreadful happened. Anna Mae became ill! She was rushed to the hospital and much to our surprise a woman doctor came to take care of her. It was Elenora McKeever!

We stopped in Richwood and decided to buy another car since driving a Cadillac was a "little expensive." We saw a sign "Curt's Cars" and investigated. We were right; Curtis Landis sold us our '66 Ford.

We ate supper in a classy restaurant where the food was delicious. Clara Starks was hostess, and she and her husband were running it.

We spent the night in a motel just outside of Richwood. On the magazine rack lay a book entitled "Birchfield's Poems." We learned that Tom had made a fortune from that book.

Now to Hillsboro. Surprise! We got it! It looked like New York! Streets-avenues-tall buildings, a real city! On Cook Avenue we saw a large hospital which covered a whole block. We parked, went in, and found Shirley Cook inspecting the hospital, which she had founded.

Next door to the hospital was an impressive funeral parlor and a familiar looking man. (Alive of course.) Walter Kellison was the mortician.

We noticed a little machine shop a few blocks further. On the window we saw a sign "Rex's." We entered and met Rex Hogsett. Of course in a huge business like this, one needs a secretary; Rex had a secretary--Evelyn Brown.

Sunday we went to church a wonderful service. Vernie Bolden was pastor.

On Monday while cruising through the city, we ran over a dog. We took him to a vet and found him to be Charles Weatherholt. From Charles we learned that Tony Gurn was coaching the W.V.U. basketball team.

The next day we visited Marlinton. Quite a few changes had taken place there. On the corner, directing traffic stood Elbert Kellison dressed as a town cop. From him we learned that Alvadore Morgan was now judge in Marlinton.

We drove up by the Court House and noticed a new lawyer's office. We soon learned that Hobert Kershner was the prosecuting attorney and Anne Farmer was his secretary.

From Anne we learned that Yvonne Hill was teaching school in Hillsboro.

After seeing or learning about our old friends and class mates, we called home for money returned on our merry way.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six, of Hillsboro High School, being of sound mind and judgment(?), do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our "Last Will and Testament."

We leave to the juniors, our old text books, in hope that they get more out of them than we did. To the sophomores we leave our old home room.

We leave to the freshmen, the halls of Hillsboro High in hopes that they always make them ring out with "Cheer."

I, Elenora McKeever, will to Richard Dalton the Bass Horn, since I have had it for four years. To Linda McMillion and Patsy Cook, I, Yvonne Hill, will a chain and a lock so they will always be locked and linked together.

Jimmy Workman wills to Mr. Byrd a Loving Cup.

Clara Starks wills to Norma Brock her shortness.

I, Anna Pringle, will to anyone who wants it, my Physical Educational Class, as I surely don't want it.

Shirley Cook wills to Patsy Cook, Raymond Scott, as she won't be here next year to take care of him.

I, Elenora McKeever, will to Lucy Jane Cutlip, my extraordinary ability in playing basketball.

Anne Farmer wills to Bobby Goodman her ability to keep her mouth shut on the school bus.

Dorothy Dever wills to Jane Ruckman her "meanness."

I, Marie Shields, will to Joan Willfong my "quietness."

Shirley Cook wills to Louise Hollandsworth her red-hair to go with her temper.

Robert Kershner wills to Jim Kellison a step ladder so he can kiss Martha Reed goodnight.

Elbert Kellison and Robert Kershner will to the lower classmen their ability to make good grades in Physical Education as it is the only one they pass.

I, Carolyn Hodges, will my position as Editor on the Little Levels Echo to Delores Arbogast.

Evelyn Brown, Anne Farmer, and Clara Starks will their friendship to Jane, Sandy, and Louise.

I, Evelyn Brown, will to Shirley Pritt, Margaret Starks, and Wenona Shue my ability to not talk so loud on the school bus.

Charles Weatherholt wills to Charles Blake his title of "Ladies Man."

In testimony here of, we herewith place our seal and signature as the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School.
